ACTUAL WIDENING OF FOOTHILL WILL BE STARTED SOON

No Objections Arise and City Securing Right to Property For State

MANLEY GIVES REPORT

Improvement Will Be Made Through City in Three Months, Belief

Actual work on the widening of Foothill boulevard through the city will be started within three months, Richard G. Manley, city service manager, said at the meeting of the city council last night, and today he and his assistants were working on the deeds and other documents pertaining to the improvement.

No obstacles have arisen with the city among the property owners, and it is believed that only much detailed and routine work stands between the present condition and actual work on the improvements.

When all the right to the property has been secured, the city will notify the state highway officials, who will then take charge of the proceedings and rush the long delayed improvement to completion.

The work is to be done by the state and the property owners will be paid for damages to buildings and other improvements.

Stirring Background Makes 'Framed' Most Intriguing Picture

Withering fire from automatic pistols forms a staccato background for "Framed" an all-talking Radio picture which opens tonight at the Upland theater.

Evelyn Brent, as a slain gangster's daughter, swears her father's death will not go unavenged and for five years she lays her plans towards that end.

Regis Toomey, an Upland movie star, as a police captain's son, falls in love with Miss Brent and she thinks in him she has found the instrument of revenge.

Enraged at the attempt of this underworld woman to steal his son, the officer fights back. The night club where Miss Brent is employed as a hostess is raided and destroyed, but not before the owner has given orders to have Toomey "put on the spot." The story moves swiftly to a dramatic climax.

VILLAGE GOSSIP
By the Mayor

Not so bad—Alan Couch parks a few nice new Chevrolets in his show rooms next to the Upland theater—and lo—he sells more Chevies the first week in Upland than in our southern suburb.

Maybe it's the sound. RCA engineers tell us that our Upland theater is the only 100 per cent talkie temple on the coast.

That's luck—to some extent—because the old Colonial building happened to be built just right. Clyde Portman's faith, genius and willingness to go the limit—did the rest.

What we mean is this—sound picture people—exhibitors or stars who hone to hear the natural charms of their own voices—rich, mellow and undistorted—they're going to throw the harness on the Rolls-Royce and gallup out this way.

Howe—and Howe—and How!

Walter and John D's Golluf Garden is a fairway (oh—oh) to bask in a glorious finish. Don't know whether Walter is going to "sound off" with a Golf Ball—or an Afternoon "Tee"—anyhow Jack will be there with his little organ, and who'd miss it.

All these little things boost the batting average of the Old Village. We can't all get out to the ball games (there is a dandy on tonight) but the local boys show a change of pace—in entertainment and amusement that ought to intrigue even the most blase.

Cheerfully yours,
—HIZ-ONNER

ROBIN HOOD GOLF COURSE NEARING

Project on East Ninth Street Will Be Opened Within Few Days

Within a week, the Robin Hood miniature golf course on East Ninth Street will be open to the public, with Walter S. Howe in charge.

The name of this city's popular pastime has been been selected and workmen are constructing what many believe to be the best course of its kind in the citrus belt. Including many novel features and attractions that will not be found in other courses, the project here is planned as a permanent feature.

Wide cement sidewalks have been constructed along the sides of the "greens" throughout the course and other items in the construction will make the course here comfortable and accessible.

Definite date for the opening has not been set. John D. Howe and his brother, Walter, are preparing for the first day, which they believe will be sometime next week.

Andrew Z. Meinert Dies at Hospital

Succumbing to a 10 days attack of pneumonia, Andrew Z. Meinert of Camp Baldy died on Wednesday afternoon in the San Antonio Community hospital. For 16 years Mr. Meinert had lived at Camp Baldy and had become widely known as keeper of Ye Olde Curiosity shop and an expert wood carver. He was 67 years old.

Mr. Meinert is survived by a brother in Baltimore and funeral arrangements, which are in charge of the Stone funeral home, were delayed awaiting word from him. The service will be held at 11 a. m. Monday at the Stone chapel.

Officers Elected by Rebekah Lodge

Officers to serve Silver Link Rebekah Lodge during the coming year were elected at the last meeting of the lodge, the new staff including Leah Sargent, noble grand; Jessie Rice, vice grand Mary Haddow, recording secretary, and Anna Giesy, financial secretary. Other officers are to be elected at a later date. Miss Mary Brain is retiring noble grand of the lodge.

There was a splendid attendance at the meeting and after the business session some time was spent practicing for the coming series of installations.

VOTERS TO DECIDE ON TAX FOR PARK, MUSIC, PROMOTION

Special Election Planned For July to Make Fund Adjustment

THREE BALLOT ISSUES

Council Prepares For Next Year's Expenditures and Asks Opinion

Upland voters will be given an opportunity at a special election in a few weeks to determine if they want to spend annually $7279 for maintenance of the present city parks and Euclid avenue parkway, $1455 for band concerts or other music, and $508 for advertising and promotion.

First steps toward the special election were taken by the city council last night when first reading was given to the ordinance fixing the proposed rates for the three items of expenditure.

The ordinance, however, will not become effective until the public has an opportunity to vote on the three special taxes. A majority vote on each feature will be necessary to approve each special tax.

The city council is taking the means of an election to give the people an opportunity to say:

First, if they want the present parks maintained;

Second, if they want band concerts or other music, and

Third, if they want to spend money for advertising and promotion, as is now being done.

In regard to the park tax, this in no way means that more park land is to be acquired—merely the maintenance of the present park program, including the Euclid avenue parkway, San Antonio Heights park and the small park on Second at D street.

If the park tax is voted down it will mean that Euclid parkway will be allowed to turn brown from lack of water and attention and that the other parks will be abandoned. The proposed park tax rate is 25c on each $100 of valuation.

The proposed tax rate for the band concerts or other music is 5c on each $100 valuation. This rate will raise a sum of $1455.85 and a majority vote will mean the continuance of the band concerts or other music. At present the music fund annually is $1647.52.

The advertising fund, which is proposed to be $582, has in the past been used in advertising the city through the chamber of commerce and other promotional agencies. The proposed rate for this fund is 2c on each $100 assessed valuation.

The election will likely be held during the last week of July. The council will hold an adjourned meeting next Thursday night to comply with certain legal requirements in regard to the proposed ordinance and election.

Edward E. Gray, city attorney, prepared the measures concerning the election and read them at the meeting last night.

Clem Portman Will Make Film in Alaska

Clem Portman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Portman, who is a sound engineer for the RKO studios, will soon go to Alaska for the filming of "The Silver Horde," the book written by Rex Beach.

Mr. Portman has already been to Europe and in all parts of this country in connection with the filming of sound pictures.

He has been in Upland from time to time in connection with the opening of the New Upland theater.

Specialists Will Study Facts on Phone Rates

Arrangements were made by the city council last night to join with Ontario in engaging G. R. Kenney, Los Angeles attorney, to make a detailed study of the facts submitted in the state railroad commission hearing on the Ontario-Upland Telephone company rate increase. Upland is to pay a third of the cost.

In addition to this assistance, the two communities will get the legal aid of the Farm Bureau and officials are hopeful of the defense that will be offered when a second hearing is held September 23.

Data Given On Special Vote

On the ballots at the special election to be held late in July, there will be three issues, each independent of the other. A majority favorable vote will authorize the new rate in each case.

Due to the increasing requirements in maintaining parks, the present tax rate for the three features—parks, music and advertising—does not raise enough money and the general fund has been depleted to a dangerous point. The voters are to decide if they want all of the three projects maintained.

Following are figures on the proposed rate, how much money this rate will produce, and the amount each project has taken in the past:

	Prop. Tax Rate $100 Valuation	Amount To Be Raised	Amount Expended Last Year
Parks	25c	$7,279.25	$5,620.93
Music	5c	1,455.85	1,647.52
Advertising	2c	508.32	582.34

The park money is only for maintenance of Euclid avenue parkway, San Antonio Heights park, and other city park property. It does not provide for purchase of new park land.

If the music fund is not voted, there will be no band concerts after this year.

UPLAND GIRL WINS MEDAL AT CHAFFEY

C. E. Representatives Going to Sacramento

The greatest C. E. special train in the history of state Christian Endeavor will pull out of the Southern Pacific station at Los Angeles on the night of June 24, headed for the state Christian Endeavor convention at Sacramento, which opens on June 25 and closes on the night of June 29.

Date Set For Hearing on Weed Clearings

On July 3 the city council will hold a hearing to give those who haven't cleared their property of weeds an opportunity to tell why the work has not been done before the city goes ahead with the work and charges the amount on the individual's tax statement.

If an arrangement cannot be made with the property owners, who are delinquent in the work, the city will have the work done early next month.

Tax Exemption For Vets Must Be Filed

War veterans who want to take advantage of the tax exemption, must file their claims in the county assessor's office by July 7, John Scott, deputy, said today in telling of the closing date.

Many war veterans in the citrus belt have not filed their claims, he said. The soldiers' material must be in the San Bernardino office and not just in the local office, he said.

WALTONIANS MAY FORM STATE GROUP

Tentative Plans For Larger Field of Service Are Discussed Here

Izaaak Walton League will be placed on a state scope if plans materialize for the creation of a California department of the organization.

Plans for such a change and the establishment of an office in Los Angeles were discussed at the meeting of the Old Baldy chapter in the Legion hall Tuesday night. Dues will be increased in the new plan and final decision is expected on the matter at the Orange Belt council meeting in Inglewood on July 21.

The establishment of a state department in the league will strengthen the standing of the league and make its work more effective, it is believed.

Plans were discussed for an Old Baldy picnic at the Rainbow Angling club next month.

Foothill Scene of Four-Car Accident

One wreck followed another in rapid succession on Foothill boulevard in front of the Everett W. Henry home at 6 o'clock Tuesday night with several injured, none seriously, and two placed under arrest for reckless driving.

W. H. Plum, Los Angeles, and L. R. Converse, Glendale, are to appear before Judge Crane next week. Plum was driving east on Foothill and attempted to pass another car going in the same direction. As he did this he struck a machine going west and the crash injured Mrs. Jesse C. Brandt and 6-months-old daughter and Mrs. C. J. Brandt, 60 years of age, La Verne. The machine struck was driven by Jesse E. Brandt.

The crash aroused the curiosity of Mr. Converse as he approached from the east and his machine ran into one driven by Miss Elizabeth Buckingham, Chaffey instructor. Her car was badly damaged, but no one was hurt.

Rebekahs Planning Installation Series

The circle of Silver Link Rebekah Lodge met Wednesday in the I. O. O. F. club rooms for an all-day session.

A contributed dish dinner was served at the noon hour.

After a short business meeting, sometime was devoted to making final plans for the coming installations. Mrs. Bertha Dinger, member of the Upland lodge and district deputy president, with her efficiently trained team will install the officers for five lodges in the district, including the Upland lodge, during the first two weeks in July.

An intertesting feature of the meeting Wednesday was the auction of a quilt, the top of which was made and donated by Mrs. Annie Bryant. Mrs. Ida Burkholder is the new owner of the quilt.

There wil be practice in installation work tonight at 7:30 and all members of the degree staff are requested to be present.

Raids Net Man and $100 Fine Assessed

S. Servetti, Eighth street and Vineyard avenue, and 300 gallons of liquor were taken into court before Judge Sharp this morning and Servetti pleaded guilty to a charge of liquor possession and was fined $100.

D. W. Brown, prohibition officer for this district, made a raid on Servetti's home last night and confiscated the liquor.

Pete and John Hernandez, local Mexicans, who have been sought for several months on a liquor charge, are now in custody of the local officials and will have a preliminary hearing next Tuesday on a charge of possession. They were arrested Wednesday and yesterday pleaded not guilty to the charge.

BUSINESS HOUSES ON FOOTHILL ARE SOUGHT BY GROUP

Petition Filed With City Planning Commission Looking to Zone Change

NEW GROUP ORGANIZES

W. K. Beattie Named Chairman of Planners—Many Projects Ahead

Property owners on Foothill boulevard want that thoroughfare zoned for business purposes and a petition looking to that end is today with the newly created city planning commission, signed by all but a few of the persons concerned.

If business could be placed on the boulevard throughout the city and especially east of Euclid avenue, work would immediately start on at least one building and other projects would follow in a short time, according to the sentiment of the leaders.

D. O. Craig, Twelfth street near Fifth avenue, said this morning that he would be working on a proposed building today if the zone would permit him to erect a structure west of his home. Activity would also be started at the corner of Fifth avenue and Twelfth street, he said, including the enlarging of at least one of the present stores there.

Rumors that a chain banking institution wants to place a branch here were current in the city and have been for several weeks, and it is believed that the move to open up Twelfth street may be in keeping with the bank rumor. One person, who signed the petition, said that less than three weeks ago a man was in the city looking over likely sites for a banking building.

Another rumor had it that a local group of men were considering forming a bank and placing it either on the boulevard or in the downtown district proper.

The planning commission will meet July 10 at which time it will take up the zoning petition and other matters.

W. K. Beattie is the chairman of the new city planning commission as the result of the organization meeting Wednesday night. C. A. Baeuerlen, who is on a European trip, was elected vice-chairman and Ted C. Combs, building inspector and assistant city engineer, was named secretary

The commission will meet the second Thursday of every month. This will bring the next meeting of the group on July 10.

Indications are that a big program is ahead for the new organization with one petition already filed.

Bookmobile Visits Upland Wednesday; Is Unique Display

New in name as well as in operation and purpose, the "bookmobile" attracted considerable interest in Upland Wednesday morning when it visited the public library.

The bookmobile, a library housed in a big blue motor bus, has visited many libraries in 36 states and has been on the road a year and a half, traveling 31,000 miles. For the past 11 months the "library on wheels" has been in charge of Thomas J. McLaughlin and he expects to complete the tour of the country within the next six months.

The tour of the bookmobile is a commercial enterprise sponsored by the National Association of Book Publishers, American Booksellers association and several publishing houses and library supply companies. The big bus carries a display of library catalogs, reference books, periodicals, indexes, samples of book binding and other library requisites.

Mrs. F. H. Mankel, librarian, and Mrs. Lucy H. Jorgensen, assistant, found much in the collection to interest them.

TOURIST GOSSIP
By the News Guy

KREMMLING, COLO., June 16, 1930—Here we are "hung up" in a small Colorado town waiting for repairs—and we'll be lucky if we are not here for another day or two. Yesterday afternoon about 2:30, while crossing over the middle of the road about 25 miles west of here we hit a big stone in a high pile of dirt the road grader had piled up. The rock could not be seen—but it could be felt when we hit it. Being somewhat round, the front axle of the car passed over it. It then hit our oil pan and dented it to such an extent that the oil pump was broken. We're still waiting for repairs to come from Denver—and not sure they were obtainable there.

A few rambling remarks may be of some interest to readers of the Upland News. This is a typical small town where the movies get their western thrillers—they're thrilling to look at in the pictures, but it is monotonously quiet. A wonderful place to take a needed rest from driving, but it's so quiet it hurts. Kremmling, Colo., population about 350, elevation 7322 feet. Perhaps you never heard of this town—unless you drove through it on the Victory highway. It has all the appearances of a has been.

Formerly it was the county seat, we are told, but the seat of justice has been moved. A little old court house still stands in the middle of the square. There are a good many more

Dart, superintendent, and Mrs. Viviette McLellan, assistant, cradle roll.

Time Is Nothing to F. H. Jacobs; Asks About Day of Week

Time means nothing to Fred H. Jacobs, paralyzed from the waist down as the result of a recent automobile crash, who is the object of much concern at the San Antonio community hospital.

Few of his friends have been permitted in his room but Francis Rogers was there yesterday and the injured man asked about the day of the week. He thought it was Saturday.

During the course of the visit, Rogers shaved Jacobs and arrangements were then made for the shave every morning. Rogers said that Mr. Jacobs was normal mentally and was suffering little pain, but that he did not have the use of his lower body.

Doctors are hopeful that the Chaffey instructor will be able to leave his bed, but there has been little change in his condition since the accident in Ontario June 8.

Manley Given Title to Cover All Jobs

Richard G. Manley is today officially "city service manager," a resolution read at the city council meeting last night giving him that title.

He occupies the position held in some cities by half a dozen or more officials and previously he had as many titles, but the new council thought it best to group the titles under the heading of city service manager.

10-ACRE GROVE IS SOLD AT PREMIUM; BRIDENBAUGH BUYS

Mr. Brdeinbaugh, who is at present residing on Nineteenth street, west of Euclid, plans to remodel the residence on the Maple grove and occupy the property within a few months. Mr. Maple plans to remain in the Upland territory.

While the exact purchase price was not made public, it was intimated that the grove was sold at a premium. The property consists of five acres navel oranges and five acres lemons.

RADIO STORY OF POET OF CAJON

Father of Camp Cajon Will Tell Story of Writer Over KHJ

The "poet laureate of the desert," J. C. Davis of Devore, Calif., is to be the subject of a broadcast over KHJ next Monday between 1:30 and 2:00 p.m. W. T. Bristol, "father" of Camp Cajon, and life long friend of Mrs. Davis, will tell of her accomplishments along literary and artistic lines.

It is the first verse of her poem "The Overland Trail" written in 1888 on the occasion of her first visit to California, that is carved in the rock at the entrance to Camp Cajon. This was selected by Mr. Bristol as being most appropriate for the "gateway to Southern California." The verse is:

Over the sage-brush desert gray
Through alkali patches pale,
It stretches away and away
and away—
The weary overland trail.

Although reporter, writer and artist during many years, she now writes only as the spirit prompts her and for the enjoyment of her friends. Knowing her love of humorous writings and dialects, a friend sent her a copy of "Village Gossip" by "Hizzoner" and she comments thus:

"I appreciate and enjoy that 'Village Gossip' stuff immensely, but did your mayor write it? It seems most too good to be 'wrote' by a mayor; he should quit 'mayoring' and give his entire time to being a 'columnist'!

City Not Satisfied With Ontario Plan of Fire Coverage

Upland firemen are willing to answer calls just south of the Santa Fe tracks, which is in Ontario, but the city council is not satisfied with a proposed contract sent to them by Ontario in connection with the arrangement of Ontario paying the local firemen for answering calls in that city.

Under the proposed plan, Ontario is to pay each fireman responding $2.50, and the firemen would put this money in a special fund for the department. Ontario, in so doing, wants to be relieved of any responsibility in case of accident to the local men, and it was this feature that did not satisfy the city council here.

Edward E. Gray, city attorney, presented the proposed contract at the council meeting last night, and when the various features were analyzed, it was decided for Mr. Gray and Richard G. Manley, city service manager, to confer with Ontario officials.

Filipino Immigration

In the immigration to this country, and especially to this state, of Filipinos, a ticklish problem arises and as the weeks go on, the problem becomes more difficult. For each week brings more and more. And each week there are more young men from the Philippine Islands who want work and will work at a wage far under the standard of the scale demanded by the whites.

Facts that fill 76 pages of a report have been issued by Will J. French, director of the department of industrial relations and the new immigration problem is pictured in convincing terms.

Here are a few salient facts concerning the Filipinos:

The influx of Filipinos into California began in the year 1923, when 2426 Philippine Islanders were admitted into the state. During the three preceding years the total number of Filipino arrivals was only 1855, or on the average of 618 per year. During the seven years 1923-1929, the average annual number of arrivals was 4177.

The largest number of Filipino arrivals into California was during the year 1929, when as many as 5795 were admitted, an increase of 139 per cent over the number admitted in 1923, when the Filipino invasion began.

Since 1920, there has been a constant increase in the numbers and proportions of Filipinos coming to California directly from the Philippine Islands. Thus, of the 2426 Filipinos who arrived in California in 1923, only 218, or 9 per cent, came from Manila, and 2053, or 84.6 per cent, came from Honolulu, but of the 5795 Filipino arrivals in 1929, 2609, or 45 per cent, came from Manila and 2622, or 45.3 per cent, came from Honolulu.

Out of every 100 Filipinos who came to California during the ten years 1920-1929, 93 were males and seven were females. During the ten years considered there were admitted into California 1395 Filipino males for every 100 Filipino females admitted. While the ratio of Filipino males to females coming to California is 14 to 1, the ratio of males to females in the total California population is 1.1 to 1.

Among the Filipinos coming to California the preponderant majority are young persons. Of the total arrivals 4.9 per cent are under 16 years of age, and 79.4 per cent are between 16 to 30 years of age. The total number under 30 years of age constitutes 84.3 per cent of the arrivals. In contrast, the percentage in the total population in California who are under 30 years of age is only 22.8.

Among the female Filipino arrivals into California, the preponderance of young persons is greater than among male Filipinos. While among the females the proportion under 16 years of age is 35.3 per cent, among the males this proportion is 4.9 per cent. Again, while among the female Filipino arrivals 57.2 per cent are under 22 years of age, among the male Filipino arrivals the corresponding percentage is 36.3.

Seventy-seven and three-tenths per cent of the Filipinos coming to California are single, 22.5 per cent are married, and 0.2 per cent are widowed. The corresponding percentages in the total population of California are 47.9 single, 43.7 married, and 6.7 widowed.

Among the female Filipino arrivals the proportion married is twice as great as among the male Filipino arrivals. About 43 per cent of the Filipino females coming to California are married women, whereas only about 21 per cent of the Filipino males coming to California are married men. Only about 12 per cent of the married Filipinos bring their wives with them upon coming to California.

There are more single persons and fewer married persons among the Filipino arrivals into California than among immigrant alien Mexicans, or among immigrant aliens, exclusive of Mexicans, admitted into the United States.

Very few Filipinos left California prior to about the middle of 1929, but from July, 1929, to the end of that year 891 Filipinos left California for foreign ports. The number of Filipinos who left California for foreign ports during the ten years 1920-1929 may have been from 2000 to 3000.

The number of Filipinos now in California is probably between 31,000 to 34,000.

Time to Study Candidates

On August 21 there comes an opportunity for the county voters to again pick their officers. After Saturday—the last day for filing nomination papers—it will be known who are seeking the various positions.

That many of the present officers are satisfied with their work, the conditions of employment and the political situation in the county is evidenced by the fact that in almost every case the incuments are seeking re-election.

In almost every case the incumbents have opponents. So the situation gives the public an opportunity to decide whether the present roll of officials is satisfactory or whether there should be a change.

At any rate, the time that elapses from June 21 to August 21 is sufficient to give everyone an opportunity to take time off and study the abilities and records of the candidates.

The time to complain about past services is now and make your vote active August 21.

When persons reach the age of 80 years, it is generally about time for retirement from the daily duties of the household and business. Mrs. C. H. Post looks at the situation differently, however. Judging by her activity one would not believe that she was the honored guest at a party Saturday celebrating her eightieth anniversary.

Reducing Smoke in Heater Is Aim of New Scheu Product

"In recent years there have been many changes in the fruit-growers' conditions," declared W. L. Scheu, manager of the Scheu Products Company, Ltd. "This has been due largely to the advent of the automobile, the radio, and other improvements that apply largely to the grower. The research department of the Scheu Products Company, Ltd., in perfecting the Hy-Lo line of heaters, have been endeavoring to keep in step with improvements in other lines by perfecting better orchard heaters."

He then brought out the fact that growers have been interested in decreasing the amount of smoke from orchard heaters. Smoke is recognized as unconsumed gasses, which, when passed to the atmosphere, represent a waste of heat.

Scheu then declared that the research department of the Scheu Products Company, Ltd., have done a great deal of experimental work to reduce smoke.

Why...

Exchange Growers Get Highest Citrus Returns

IT IS NOT hard to see why citrus growers who market their crops through the California Fruit Growers Exchange average the highest returns for their fruit, year after year. The Exchange gives them an advantage over other methods every step of the way. From orchard to consumer's table, the Exchange fruit has the "edge". Consider, one by one, the factors that influence returns:

1. Quality of Fruit—This, of course, depends mostly on the individual grower. But when he is in the Exchange, he can be assured that the best in pest-control, handling and packing methods are his to command. Fertilizers and orchard supplies at lowest possible prices are available through his cooperative supply company. No other marketing agency offers such complete service along these lines.

2. Market Information—Exchange representatives in every important citrus market in this country and abroad furnish daily reports to all Exchange shippers—covering all factors that influence sales and prices. Each Exchange shipper gets the sales results of every other Exchange shipper by bulletin each morning so can judge for himself the market trend. Other marketing agencies do not do this. Recent installation of teletype service between sales headquarters and the 23 District Exchanges has still further speeded and improved Sunkist market news service.

3. Distribution and Sales Facilities—Because it maintains 59 district sales offices, with its own experienced representatives in each, and because it handles 75% of the total California citrus crop, the Exchange is best able to take instant advantage of every market situation for its members' benefit.

Sunkist

4. Prestige—After the fruit reaches market, the Exchange offers growers this vitally important asset: Exchange fruit enjoys a prestige with the public and trade that no other fruit even approaches. And the public and trade willingly pay a premium for this greater dependability. Twenty-three years of continuous Sunkist advertising have helped to build this reputation—worth millions every year to Exchange growers.

5. Operating Cost—Because of the volume of fruit it handles, the Exchange has been able to reduce its unit selling costs lower than those of any other citrus sales agency.

6. Who Gets the Profits—Because the Exchange is strictly grower-owned and controlled, every cent over actual operating cost goes to the growers. No unnecessary profits or extra expense to pay. All services are rendered without profit.

Thus we see that from every angle Exchange growers are in the best position to get the most for their crops. And because that is exactly what happens, three out of every four California growers now market through this one great organization—and more are coming in every year.

Why not get these benefits yourself? For further information about the Exchange, talk to the manager of your nearest District Exchange or Exchange Association, or write now to Growers Service Bureau, California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C", Los Angeles.

WHAT THE EXCHANGE IS: The California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of more than 12,000 California citrus fruit growers, producing over 75% of the California citrus crop, operated by and for them on a cooperative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for California Oranges, Lemons and Grapefruit, and to provide a marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at least expense. Receipts from sales, less only actual cost of operation, are returned to growers. Applications are received through all the Exchange's 209 local packing associations, 23 District Exchanges, or at the central offices in Los Angeles.

NEW OFFICERS OF D.A.R. INSTALLED

Los Serranos Chapter Holds Last Meeting at Home of New Regent

The Los Serranos Chapter of the D. A. R. closed this year's program with a luncheon meeting on Wednesday at the home of Miss Ethel Leeke. The hostesses for this occasion were Mrs. Cordelia Story Hutcheson, Mrs. F. E. Hadley and Mrs. Portia Austin Colborn.

Following the luncheon, the new officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. F. H. Wallihan, regent for the past two years. They are Miss Ethel Leeke, regent; Mrs. Portia Austin Colborn, vice-regent; Mrs. Miles Harnly, historian; Mrs. Ray Delhauer, treasurer; Mrs. May Hart Smith, registrar; Mrs. J. I. Countryman, recording secretary, and Mrs. J. S. Shor, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Wallihan's term of office chapter with a gavel made from one of the oldest orange trees in the locality. This tree was on the old Gaylord place, the family estate of Mrs. Delhauer.

Mrs. Waallihan's term of office has been a success from every point of view and the chapter extended their appreciation of her services together with the past regent's badge.

Mrs. Ernest Lee entertained the chapter with humorous and historical reminiscences of her recent trip to the east. Mrs. Lee and her party crossed by motor stage and after many interesting and humorous incidents arrived in Detroit, where they purchased a car in which they toured the east and drove home.

After visiting Niagara Falls and other points of interest, they arrived in Concord. Here they viewed Breeds Hill and saw the bridge where the Minute Men met the British. Leaving Concord, they went on to Boston, seeing the Old North Church and the home of Paul Revere, as well as many other points of interest, since Boston is full of historical spots. They were thrilled when they stood on the spot where our forefathers landed, Plymouth Rock. They also stopped at Washington, D. C., for several days, and saw the various points of interest there. From Washington the party drove home through the south. One of the very interesting spots visited was Cherry Valley, where a monument stands erected to the memory of those brave people who were massacred there. Salt Lake, too, was visited en route.

Those hearing Mrs. Lee were intensely interested by her entertaining manner of presenting her talk and were happy indeed to welcome her as a new member of the chapter.

Floyd Batchelor Tells of Narrow Escape on Visit

Floyd Batchelor, formerly in business here, was in Upland on Wednesday visiting with friends and marveling at the changes in the community.

Enjoying a vacation from the Owl Drug company, Venice, Mr. Batchelor, with his wife, was returning from the southern end of the state when they came here.

On Tuesday night they experienced an event that for a time looked dangerous. As they neared Banning at midnight Tuesday, they noticed a car enter the highway from a side road and seek to overtake their machine. The car forged ahead and when in direct path of the Batchelor machine began to stop.

Believing that there were indications of foul play, Mr. Batchelor brought his machine to a sudden stop and turned around. As he turned, his car lights focused on the driver of the machine ahead, who was leaving the car with a gun in his hand.

The Batchelors speeded back on the route and at a safe distance from the robbers stopped their car and remained in the machine all night.

Brides-Elect Honored at Happy Party Last Evening

A happy courtesy for a bride-elect, a delightfully humorous mock wedding, and the announcement of her own approaching marriage, were features that kept the guests highly entertained last evening when Miss Helen Hilty was hostess to a number of her friends at her home, 690 Second avenue.

Invited to the Hilty home to greet Miss Anna Beall Clark, whose wedding will occur this summer, the guests were also prepared to hear the announcement of Miss Hilty's wedding day, the secret of her engagement to Ernie Olson really being no secret at all.

The gay party opened with a game of bridge when the guests had all assembled and had greeted Miss Clark, the honoree, and events were progressing in orderly manner when suddenly there burst upon upon the air the strains of a wedding march, expertly played in tin-pan fashion by Miss Ethel Olson. Then there entered a strange procession. Miss Gladys Riley, dressed as an old-fashioned bride, was announced as "Miss Clark;" the groom was impersonated by Miss Florence Armstrong, in men's attire. Miss Lorene Lamphear was the ring-bearer and Miss Jessie Brown the knot-tying preacher, and "Miss Clark" was duly wed.

When the hilarity had subsided, quartet tables were arranged for the serving of a dainty summer collation and it was then that Miss Hilty's own announcement was made. The table appointments were all in bridal white and centering each was a cleverly made and dainty bridal couple, the miniature brides in demure veil and the jaunty grooms equipped with top hat and cane. From each groom's hand streamers radiated to the covers and when the right ribbon was pulled a scroll, which he held "up his sleeve" revealed the legend "Helen and Ernie—September," and Miss Hilty was showered with good wishes and with hearty congratulations to be relayed to Mr. Olson.

Those having the pleasure of participating in the double-event party were Miss Anna Beall Clark, Mesdames Clifford Jellison, Ida Wisely of Ontario, Alma Olson, Elno Steiner, Fred R. Rickel, Lucile Shawver of Ontario, Harold J. Stickney, Geo. W. West, Ellery F. Wright, Vernon V. Paine, and Misses Gladys Riley, Jessie Brown, Hazel Miller, Lois Kent, Doris LeOla R. STATE BIRD FARM INTERESTING NOW

Pheasants and Other Wild Birds Maturing For Hunting Season

Visitors to the state game bird farm, three miles south of Chino, are treated to a sight these days for as one walks through the isles of the huge fencing pen after pen of baby pheasants, quail and turkeys may be seen.

The little fellows, brooded by domestic hens, keep old biddy on edge the greatest share of the time by scooting here and there among the grass and grain stalks that fill the pens to hide from the visitors. Each flock has a small confine in which to roam but the narrow boards that border it prove only challenges to the birds as they try their wings.

More than 2000 baby pheasants of various and sundry classifications will be found in one's meanderings through the enclosures. These little brown babies dart here and there about their pens, flapping wings that only boast of a few real feathers and emitting a chirping sound that is far from the usual peep of baby chicks.

The mother hen's clucks are more or less unfamiliar sounds to them apparently and it is only when they feel that actual danger is near that the slatted box becomes home to them.

Over in another pen one will find a whole flock of valley quail, the gamest bird of them all, and like their pheasant mates in captivity, they, too, hover with a domestic hen. There are only a few less than 200 of these little fellows, coccidiocis having caused the loss of about a dozen. Supt. Eugene Platt had had hopes of pulling through with the full 200 but it couldn't be done. There are a few turkeys, not so many as quail, but enough to interest the visitor.

Mr. Platt stated that within a few days some of the pheasant chicks would be taken to ranches near Hemet and San Jacinto where farmers had agreed to raise them for later liberation in that district. With the limited space at the bird farm at present it is necessary that this procedure be followed.

Later, however, it is expected that fencing will be completed to more than double the size of the present enclosure.

Trojans Complete Championship Year

FAIR BUILDING IS FIRST OF ITS KIND

Capacity For 16,000 Created in New Building For Annual Exhibition

With the completion of the new permanent exhibit building constructed for the Los Angeles County Fair association, Pomona is the site of what is accounted the largest and most impressive structure of the kind in the world. Such assertion covers a lot of territory, but so does this building, and it has construction features that make it outstanding unique among the foremost exposition structures. A phase of its uniqueness is that it was designed and built without the guidance of precedent.

This jumbo building is of steel and concrete, 800 feet long, 140 feet wide, with a height of 55 feet to the center of its curved roof, and represents a construction cost of about $250,000. There is not a roof-supporting column throughout its extensive interior, a hinged-arch method having been utilized to hold up its widespread covering.

This arrangement gives it a seating capacity of 16,000 persons and enables the display of exhibits to the best possible advantage. At one end is a large stage with a proscenium arch 125 feet wide. There are ample dressing rooms and other accessories. Equipment includes a large balcony for musicians.

County Architect Karl W. Muck, who designed the building, developed its style of architecture along modernistic lines involving many original ideas. It was constructed under the supervision of Sidney T. Graves, chairman of the building committee of the board of county supervisors and now also chairman of the board.

These structural details enable a fairly good visualization of the building's size, but it requires actual inspection of it to give an adequate idea of how huge it really is or of its pleasing appearance, inside and out. The floor space of many a large building is dwarfed in comparison with its area. It easily could cover a large athletic field meet. If it were somewhat higher, it could contain the Graf Zeppelin and with plenty of room to spare.

It especially indicates the success attained by the Los Angeles County Fair, which is in the front rank of permanent expositions.

The new building will be used for the first time during the fair next fall.

Tourists Will Be Tagged; Summons To Tell of City

Out of state cars in Upland are going to be tagged by the police.

The tag, however, will be a friendly one, and not the kind that bring motorists into police court.

The Upland Lions club is preparing to provide the police with tags, which will direct the visitors to the orange and lemon groves, the packing houses, Euclid avenue, Upland Woman's clubhouse, Red Hill Country club and the Madonna of the Trail monument.

Such a procedure, it is believed, will create a friendly feeling for the city with the visitors and result in the tourists seeing more of the attractions here.

SUMMER SWIMMING AT CHAFFEY IS ON

Boys and Girls Can Go in Plunge Free Tomorrow; Play Starts Here

Swimming is free for all boys and girls of the community in the Chaffey plunge tomorrow and those from Upland who go there can register for the supervised playground program which will be conducted here during the summer.

F. H. Clapp, who will be general supervisor of the playgrounds in Upland and Ontario, will be at the pool and if the local youths want to, they can sign up for the summer work.

While Miss Marian Henderson will be in direct charge of the local work, the program here will in general be along the same lines as that given at Chaffey and at the South Euclid school, Ontario.

Boys will swim in the plunge at 9 o'clock in the morning and the girls are to report for a swim at 10 o'clock. Races will be conducted and there will be a Red Cross official there to give tests to those who want the examination, Mr. Clapp said.

Picture at Upland Theater Stars Regis Toomey and Made by Clem Portman

In addition to the starring appearance of Regis Toomey of Upland in the all sound picture, "Framed" which opens at the New Upland theater tonight, another Upland feature in the making of the picture has come to light.

Clem Portman, son of C. A. Portman, owner of the new theater here, is an expert sound technician for the RKO studios and in that capacity he recorded the picture "Framed."

In other words what the people will see at the New Upland theater tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night, will be a picture in which an Uplander stars and a picture in which a new Uplander played a prominent part in the technical production.

Mr. Toomey is constantly winning new friends in his movie career and "Framed" is said to be his outstanding success. In this picture he plays a role more important than any other role and Uplanders will be gratified to see him in the production in the new theater.

Nurse at Hospital Announces Marriage

Mrs. E. E. Kelley, who as Miss Hazel Marjorie Lees has been head surgical nurse at the San Antonio Community hospital for the past year, has resigned her position and will join her husband in St. Louis. Miss Lees surprised the hospital staff this week by announcing her marriage to E. E. Kelley at Yuma, Ariz., on December 30. Mr. Kelley is well-known in national Red Cross circles and is a physical education director.

Many Students Visit Red Cross Museum

Significant of the unprecedented influx of school excursions to Washington this spring from different parts of the country, according to a Red Cross report, has been the count in three days of 4,000 visitors of high school age at the Red Cross museum in the national headquarters of the American Red Cross. These young people came largely because of their interest in the Junior Red Cross.

SEE "YOURSELF AS OTHERS DO," PLEA

Rev. Chamberlin Tells Lions That Criticising Is Easy; Speaks Thursday

It is easy enough for people to criticise, but the same principles of judging others should be applied to oneself, Rev. J. M. Chamberlin, pastor of the Cucamonga Community church, declared in an address delivered at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in The Sycamores yesterday noon.

Everyone is busy watching the other fellow, and "if we can only see the other fellow's short comings, it gives us enough of a feeling of superiority in ourselves," he said. "How easy it is to see the other fellow's faults and how hard to see our own."

The average citizen has little ground to criticise how public officials or rich men act if he himself deliberately makes a wrong entry in the income tax report, he said.

"The pedestrian looks upon the motorist as a reckless, inconsiderate driver, while the man at the wheel looks upon the pedestrian as being careless and a 'jaywalker'," Rev. Chamberlin continued.

"Until this nation has cleaned up at home, it ought to be a little more careful about what we say about other nations and nationalities. Sometimes, instead of having Thanksgiving day, we ought to have a national day of repentence. It takes just ordinary honesty to see what is wrong with ourselves."

This was the last meeting of the club under the present regime and Fred E. Draper served throughout the meeting as president for the last time. Ted C. Combs was program chairman and introduced Rev. Chamberlin.

W. F. Naftel was a guest of Wiley W. Mather, and Morris Reynolds, who is visiting his father, W. C. Reynolds, was also a guest.

Piano and Violin Pupils in Recital

Before a large audience of relatives and friends, piano and violin pupils of Miss Marian Short presented a well-prepared and very entertaining program at the club house of the Upland Woman's club Monday evening, 25 members of the large class taking part in the recital.

Each one of the young musicians appeared to advantage, performing in a manner that showed careful preparation. The program of well blended piano and violin numbers was featured by the splendid performance of two of the more advanced pupils, Norman Mather, pianist, presenting Chopin's "Polonaise Militaire," and Paul Maitral, who contributed a violin solo, Scene De Ballet by De Beriot. Both of these numbers were well executed and were very beautiful.

A number of friends of Miss Short and the pupils brought flowers and the stage was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli.

Clouds Ahead

"Why do they always give a shower to a girl who is going to be married?"

"Merely a quaint old custom to symbolize the beginning of a reign."

ETIWANDA RALLIES TO WIN, 10 TO 9

Four Home Runs Hit in Second Game of Night League; Atwood's Defeated

By Paul Weber

In a game full of thrills that kept the spectators on edge during the entire contest the Etiwanda ball team staged a three run rally in the ninth inning Wednesday evening to win the second league night ball game from Atwood's by a 10 to 9 score.

Wednesday night's game saw some heavy hitting on the part of both teams. Joins, Atwood shortstop, gave the fans a thrill in the fifth inning when he connected with one of Brownless' fast balls for the first home run of the season. Incidently three other circuit clouts were batted out during the game. Beckner scored on a long hit down the third base line in the eighth frame with one man crossing the plate ahead of him to put the Atwood team out in front seven to five. Kemp, third sacker for the Etiwanda team, also knocked one out of the lot in the eighth inning, while R. Frost lifted one of Myers' offerings over the left fielder's head to start off Etiwanda's winning rally in the ninth. Beckner and Joins each got a two base hit in addition to their home runs. Bigley also hit a two bagger for the Atwood outfit.

Neither team was able to score until the last half of the fourth frame. Brown, Etiwanda first baseman, drew a base on balls, took second on a wild throw, and went to third after Brownless had flied out to right field. Brown then scored when one of Myers' pitches got through the catcher. Atwood's came right back in their half of the fifth and took the lead by putting across four runs. Ellery Wright was safe at first on an error by the pitcher and took second on a passed ball. Swindells reached first when Johnston muffed a hot grounder, Wright going to third. Bigley then connected for his two bagger, scoring Wright and Swindells. Joins followed with the first homer of the season, scoring Bigley ahead of him.

Etiwanda staged a so-called wild rally in the sixth inning, scoring four runs and taking the lead by the narrow margin of one run. To start off the excitement, R. Frost walked and immediately stole second base. Brown singled and Frost went to third, but was out at the plate on Joins' throw to Confer, Brown going to third on the putout. Brownless was passed on four balls and Brown scored on the next pitch, which was a passed ball. W. Scott reached first on a fielder's choice, Brownless scoring. Kemp then hit sharply to right field to score Scott, but was out trying to reach home. Johnston got a hit, stole second, and crossed the plate when Mueller singled. With a man on third and first J. Scott struck out to end the inning. Atwood's made three runs in the eighth when Myers and Confer were both safe on errors and scored on Beckner's long home run. The Etiwanda team tied it up again in their half of the eighth when, after Kemp had homed, Colombero drew a base on balls and stole second base. Colombero came home and scored when Confer dropped the ball at the plate.

Going into the ninth inning with the score tied 7-7, Lewis singled over short and took third on two passed balls. After Bigley had flied out, Joins doubled to score Lewis and went to third on the throw in. Joins then crossed the plate on Myers' sacrifice. R. Frost, the first batter for Etiwanda, hit for a home run into left field. Brown singled back of first and came home when Lewis failed to find the ball, tying the count 9-9. After Brownless had walked Kemp drove a long hit to center scoring Brownless with the tenth and winning run.

After the First Twenty-five Thousand Miles

THE VALUE of sound design, good materials and careful craftsmanship is especially apparent in the new Ford after the first twenty-five thousand miles. Long, continuous service emphasizes its mechanical reliability and economy of operation and up-keep.

As you drive the Ford through many months and years you will develop an increasing pride in its appearance and a growing respect for the substantial worth that has been built into it. From every standpoint—in everything that goes to make a good automobile—you will know that you have made a far-seeing, satisfactory purchase.

Wherever you go, you hear enthusiastic praise of the car and this significant, oft-repeated phrase—"I'm glad I bought a Ford."

A FORD owner in New York tells of a 13,000-mile trip across the United States and back in sixty days and says "the car was extremely economical to operate, comfortable and speedy." A grateful father tells how the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield saved his wife and children from serious injury.

To test tires, a large company drove a new Ford day and night, for an average of 500 miles every twenty-four hours. It was still giving satisfactory service after 105,000 miles.

A Ford car that had fallen into Fernan Lake was submerged for twelve days before being raised. After a new battery and carburetor bowl were installed, it was driven back to Spokane under its own power.

Many police departments have written of the special advantages of the Ford in crowded traffic because of its alert speed, acceleration, and ease of control. An increasing number of fleet owners are also purchasing the Ford because their cost figures have given conclusive proof of its economy of operation and up-keep.

In addition to important triumphs in Germany, France and Italy, the Ford won six out of seven leading places in a contest in Finland, first and second in the Rafaela races in Argentina, first and second in the run from Copenhagen-to-Paris-to-Copenhagen, three gold medals in England, first ranking in the durability test over the tortuous Amancaes road in Peru, and first place in the 1930 reliability run conducted by the Royal Automobile Club of Sweden.

This contest was an exceptionally severe test of endurance and sturdy construction because it was held in the dead of winter and covered 600 miles of steady running over snow-covered country roads and mountainous hills.

STATE BABY CROP FELL OFF IN 1929

Birthrate For Whites Decreased in California, But Mexican Rate Higher

California's 1929 baby crop fell off to the lowest level recorded in the state since 1919, according to the annual stork activity report of the state bureau of vital statistics.

The total was 81,498 new arrivals, compared with 83,463 in 1928. This is a rate of 18.3 births per 1,000 population in California, bringing the state average below that of the United States as a whole, which is 19.7 per 1,000.

San Bernardino county had 2,363 births within its borders during the year, a rate of 26.4 per 1,000.

State officials frankly admit they can't place responsibility for this low record. Quoting Dr. Walter M. Dickie, director of the state department of public health:

"Some unknown factor is present which is apparently responsible for the lower rate. What it is, we do not know. It must be borne in mind, however, that the rates are computed upon an estimated population based upon the U. S. census figures for California in the censuses of 1910 and 1920. We have no exact information available as to the real population."

Mexican births for 1929 showed an increase in California, despite the drop in the state average. In 1928 there were 13,846 children born to Mexicans and 13,955 last year.

A noticeable decrease occurred in Japanese births during the past year. In 1928 these births totaled 2,883, while in 1929 they dropped to 2,353.

Regis Toomey, co-starred with Evelyn Brent in the production of the all-talking picture "Framed." An Upland product, Mr. Toomey, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Toomey, has enjoyed a rapid rise in the film industry and in this production he reaches his highest mark.

Coupled with Mr. Toomey's ability and the fine sound qualities of the equipment in the new Upland theater, theater fans will enjoy a full program this week-end.

Church Purchases More Property at Idyllwild Resort

As chairman of the national mission committee of the Riverside Presbytery, Dr. R. C. Stone, with a group of others from Upland, attended a meeting of the committee held Monday at Idyllwild in the San Jacinto mountains, and as a result the church property there was materially increased.

Other members of the committee and friends from the several churches in the Presbytery increased the group to quite a large gathering, and although the object of the meeting was the transaction of business, time was found for recreation and a picnic dinner was enjoyed.

For some time the Presbytery has considered enlarging its facilities at Idyllwild and Monday it was unanimously decided to purchase a lot adjoining that already held and on which there is a house and a garage. This will become the home for the pastor and the building that has been serving as a manse will be converted into a church. The new property is supplied with water and lights and its acquisition brings the church holdings to one acre, which is in a beautiful location.

The pastor of the church is the Rev. Wallace T. McAfee, son of Dr. McAfee of Berkeley. He formerly was a missionary in China. Beside the Idyllwild church he also serves the church at Palm Springs, living there in the winter and at the mountain resort in the summer.

Going over from Upland with Dr. Stone Monday were Mrs. Stone and her mother, Mrs. Isabel Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bridenbaugh, Miss Helen Clark Miss Flora Morley and Dr. Benjamin A. Fye of Ontario, all in Mr. Bridenbaugh's car, and N. G. Pehl, Robert Stone, the Rev. and Mrs. W. I. Doole and Miss Rosa Doole in the Pehl car.

POMONA COLLEGE OFFERS COURSES

Summer Sessions Will Start Soon With Special Professors Engaged

Offering Southern California communities the finest in college summer sesson instruction, both graduate and undergraduate courses being offered, Claremont Colleges announces four divisions of summer school work. These will be given in Claremont, at Bluff Lake in the San Bernardino mountains, at the Pomona college Laguna Beach Marine Laboratory and at San Diego.

Preliminary registrations for summer work, especially in the Claremont division are now being received.

Because of freedom from heavy traffic in and about Claremont it is expected that scores of teachers and others will commute to and from their classes here. The summer session opens June 23 and closes August 1.

Of special interest is the announcement that for those who can not go to Mexico or Spain in order to improve their Spanish, the summer program of Claremont Colleges offers an unusual and inexpensive substitute. For several years Pomona college has led in the exchange of students and teachers with the University of Mexico at Mexico City. This year two Pomona students will go to Mexico for the summer session there, and two Mexican teachers will be sent here as exchange students from the University of Mexico. Ten teachers selected from various parts of Mexico, will attend the summer school. These have been awarded scholarships by the Inter-American Foundation. In addition the University of Mexico is sending Professor Francisco Monterde Icazbalceta who will offer courses in Hispanic-American literature in which he is a noted authority. Additional Spanish courses will also be offered by Professor J. W. Crowell.

A wide array of other courses is listed on the curriculum for the Claremont division.

Special work in the theoretical and practical sides of mathematics and surveying will be given at Bluff Lake near Big Bear Lake, under the supervision of Professor Edward Taylor. At San Diego State College, Claremont Colleges will offer graduate work in several fields. Courses in marine zoology will be offered at Laguna Beach Marine Laboratory under the direction of Dr. W. A. Hilton.

2 Speakers Will Open Engagement Tuesday

Prof. A. W. von Lange and Leo A. Haas, who have been lecturing in San Bernardino and formerly in Ontario, will open a series of addresses in the Upland Woman's clubhouse at 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

Their topics concerned specialized lines dealing with health and it is reported that large crowds have attended their other lectures in the county.

They will conduct lectures in the clubhouse all next week.

May Prefer Roses For Mountain Ave.

Residents on Mountain avenue have approached William C. Atchley, city councilman, concerning the possibility of having the trees along the avenue of the same variety—or better still to have the trees removed and all plant roses or other flowers.

Such was the report of Mr. Atchley at the meeting of the council last night. Richard G. Manley, city service manager, was asked to study the matter and find out what can be done.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Perrin and family have moved from their home on Eighth avenue to their property on Benson avenue in Ontario.

News Guy Tells of Tourist Travels

stores in the town than there are people on the streets. In fact, we see three boys and two men as we look out the window. In towns like this on these main highways it seems their only reason for existence is to take care of the tourists—and there are really two well equipped garages here, also a good tourist camp or two. Bob's cafe is a very respectable looking place, and the meals are good.

This tourist business is at its height for only three or four months during the year—and they say it has only been real summer weather for about two weeks. An old man who is apparently an old timer here, told me the thermometer got down to 48 below zero last winter and that 40 below is not unusual.

One train east and one west daily from Denver passes through Kremmling. That's their only mail service. But this is not as bad as a little place in Utah where we stopped for breakfast yesterday. We picked up what we thought was the Sunday paper—it was Sunday morning. We noticed it was dated Thursday, and asked for the Sunday paper—but that was the latest paper they had, three days old, and that's how up-to-date they are able to keep by reading the papers. This was a Salt Lake paper, and as it reaches them on Sunday, it has all the Sunday features with it—such as the "funnies," feature sections, etc. And most of you folks in Upland think you have to have a morning and evening paper every day—right hot off the press.

It seems we have had more mountain driving than anything else since we left home—and there are plenty of tragedies reported. People are absolutely too careless in taking the narrow curves in the mountains where only a few feet mean a drop of hundreds or thousands of feet to death. A Nebraska lady in this camp last evening was telling our wife of their narrow escape. Just on a curve their car and another met head-on—the other party being on the wrong side of the road. The compact was such that both cars narrowly missed going over the edge and to their death. She was almost a nervous wreck after this experience.

We were talking to another tourist who is also held up here for repairs. He had a similar story—and said he was going to have his car fixed, sell it and never drive in this country again. A careless fool coming down hill in the mountainous section almost struck him. In attempting to turn a sharp curve he was unable to make it—and his car went over on the side—miraculously escaping a plunge off the grade.

A man and his wife were picked up dead on the road near this little town yesterday afternoon—another automobile accident, but how it was caused we did not learn.

If this is a sample of conditions all through these mountains there must be a terrible toll of injury and death that are never read of in the newspapers.

While this town of Kremmling is very small it must have a considerable number of people to draw from for business in the surrounding country. Towns out here, though they may be small like this, are usually far apart. The main farming industry seems to be stock raising. Meat here is cheap and of excellent quality. Canned goods are high. We paid 45c for a can of pineapple—like we buy in Upland for 20c and 25c. Sixty cents buys a good meal at the cafe—including a wonderful piece of steak well fried. This cafe—and there are two fairly good looking hotels where meals are served also—depends practically altogether on tourist trade.
